

Able To Wait

Faithful, purified remnant

Able to wait attentively, expectant.

Receiving a promise is movement

From something, to something more.

Learning to nurture the moment;

Active in the present.

Not entangled in fears or wishes of control,

but open-ended.

Trust deeply, waiting heart, listen and rest content.

Our culture and society tends to move fast, entitled, and outward.

Yet, as God's children, He calls us to wait on the Spirit and stand confident in His Word; His promises that are life. His love, timing and embrace cover more activity within and without, than business we see so much of in our generation.

WAIT FOR THE LORD; BE STRONG
AND TAKE HEART AND WAIT FOR THE LORD. ~PSALMS 27:1

Mary Beth Anderson

